

Automatic Payment Balance Plan - Level 2

Level 2: two-step money math

Practice account: Jo has $65.00. No deposits or other purchases occur before Friday. All amounts shown are final.

Wednesday	Phone payment: $24.00 automatically leaves the account.
Friday	Music payment: $8.00 automatically leaves the account.
Today	Jo is considering a $30.00 game.
Goal	Keep at least $10.00 after both automatic payments.

Sample answers below. Accept equivalent wording and supported communication.

1. How much will the two automatic payments take in total?

$32.00 ($$24.00 + \8.00).

2. How much remains after both payments, without the game?

$33.00 ($$65.00 - \32.00).

3. If Jo also buys the game, how much remains?

$3.00 ($$33.00 - \30.00).

4. What is the most Jo can spend and still meet the $10 goal?

$23.00 ($$33.00 - \10.00).

Check a Reservation Deposit

Developing: subtraction within 30

A fictional craft studio requires a deposit. A deposit is part of the full price, paid early. Prices include all fees.

Full class price	$28.00
Deposit already paid	$10.00
Pay the rest	At the studio on class day
Money brought to class	$20.00

Sample answers below. Accept equivalent wording and supported communication.

1. How much has already been paid?

$10.00.

2. How much is still owed on class day?

$18.00 ($28.00 - $10.00).

3. Is $20 enough to pay the rest?

Yes; $20.00 is at least $18.00.

4. How much change should the learner receive from $20?

$2.00 ($20.00 - $18.00).

Book a Haircut - Level 2

Level 2: coordinate two constraints

Kai wants a haircut only. Kai can arrive Tuesday between 2:00 PM and 4:00 PM, and can spend at most $20. All prices are final.

Option A	Tuesday 1:00 PM Haircut only $18
Option B	Tuesday 3:00 PM Haircut only $18
Option C	Tuesday 3:00 PM Cut and styling $26
Booking rule	Ask staff to confirm the service, time, and price.

Sample answers below. Accept equivalent wording and supported communication.

1. Which option meets both the time and price limits?

Option B.

2. Why does Option A not work for Kai?

1:00 PM is before Kai can arrive.

3. Why does Option C not meet the plan?

It costs $26, above the $20 limit, and includes styling.

4. Write or say a booking request for Kai.

Example: Can I book a haircut only on Tuesday at 3:00 PM for $18?

Ask for Written Directions - Level 2

Level 2: request, then confirm

At a community desk, Ren finds long spoken directions hard to remember. Ren prefers a short written list and can ask staff to explain one step at a time.

Staff says	Sign in, go upstairs, find Room 4, then show your pass.
Available support	Staff can write the steps on paper.
First step	Sign in at this desk.
Communication choices	Speak, write, point, or use a communication device.

Sample answers below. Accept equivalent wording and supported communication.

1. What support matches Ren's stated preference?

A short written list of steps.

2. Write or say a request for that support.

Example: Please write the steps down for me.

3. How can Ren confirm the first step?

Example: Do I sign in here first?

4. One written step is still unclear. What could Ren ask?

Example: Please explain this step, or show me where Room 4 is.

Borrow a Charger and Return It

Foundational: explicit details and short request

Dev needs to borrow a charger. Lee has not agreed yet. Read Lee's conditions before deciding what Dev should do.

Lee says	Ask before taking my charger.
If I agree	Use it at this table.
Return time	Give it back to me by 2:30 PM.
If plans change	Tell me before the return time.

Sample answers below. Accept equivalent wording and supported communication.

1. Write or say a request Dev could make.

Example: May I use your charger here until 2:30 PM?

2. Can Dev take it before Lee agrees?

No. Dev needs permission first.

3. Where should Dev use the charger if Lee agrees?

At this table.

4. Dev needs it longer. What should Dev do before 2:30?

Ask Lee before 2:30; return it on time if Lee does not agree.

Collect a Lost Item

Developing: compare multiple details

Sam lost a blue lunch bag with a yellow star and the name Sam inside. Use the fictional lost-property list. Ask staff to check an item before collecting it.

Item 12	Blue lunch bag yellow star name Sam inside
Item 13	Blue lunch bag green stripe name Alex inside
Item 14	Red lunch bag yellow star no name
Collection desk	Reception open 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM

Sample answers below. Accept equivalent wording and supported communication.

1. Which item number matches all of Sam's details?

Item 12.

2. Name two details that help staff check the item.

Any two: blue lunch bag, yellow star, name Sam inside.

3. Where should Sam ask about the bag?

Reception.

4. Write or say a clear request to staff.

Example: I lost a blue lunch bag with a yellow star and my name Sam inside. Could you check Item 12?

Read a Water Refill Station Notice

Foundational: locate explicit instructions

Read the practice notice at a community center water station. These rules belong to this fictional station.

Bring	Your own refillable bottle.
Before filling	Empty any leftover drink into the sink.
Filling spot	Place the bottle under the water nozzle.
Keep clear	Do not touch the nozzle with your bottle.
If water spills	Tell the front desk so staff can clean it.

Sample answers below. Accept equivalent wording and supported communication.

1. What container should you bring?

A refillable bottle.

2. Where should leftover drink go before filling?

Into the sink.

3. What should the bottle avoid touching?

The water nozzle.

4. Water spills onto the floor. What does this notice say to do?

Tell the front desk so staff can clean it.

Plan a Device Charging Routine

Foundational: read an explicit sequence

Noor uses a communication tablet each morning. Practice the routine below. For real devices, follow the device instructions and the learner's support plan.

- | | |
|-----------------------|---|
| Evening step 1 | Check the battery level. |
| Evening step 2 | If low, ask for help connecting the approved charger. |
| Morning step 3 | Check that the tablet has enough charge for the day. |
| Morning step 4 | Pack the tablet in its usual bag pocket. |

Sample answers below. Accept equivalent wording and supported communication.

1. What does Noor check first in the evening?

The battery level.

2. If the battery is low, what is the next step?

Ask for help connecting the approved charger.

3. Before packing, what should Noor check?

That the tablet has enough charge for the day.

4. Where does the tablet go so Noor can find it?

In its usual bag pocket.

Pause Before an Unexpected QR Code - Level 2

Level 2: apply a safety rule to a new medium

Practice rule: do not scan QR codes or follow links in unexpected messages or packages. Verify through a store app or contact method you already know. Do not use contact details from the suspicious note.

Situation	A package arrives. Taylor did not order it.
Inside note	Scan this code now to claim a free gift.
Pressure clue	The note says the offer expires in 10 minutes.
Safe option	Taylor can ask a trusted person to help check independently.

Sample answers below. Accept equivalent wording and supported communication.

1. Which detail shows the package was unexpected?

Taylor did not order it.

2. Which words pressure Taylor to act quickly?

Now, or the offer expires in 10 minutes.

3. Should Taylor scan the code to find out who sent it?

No; do not scan a code in an unexpected package.

4. Name one safer next step.

Ask a trusted person to help verify, or check using a known store app/contact method.

Follow a Changing-Room Privacy Routine

Foundational: apply posted rules

Read this fictional pool changing-room notice. A learner may use a support person according to their own needs and choices.

Choose a space	Use an empty changing cubicle.
Before entering	If a door is closed, knock and wait for a reply.
While changing	Close the cubicle door for privacy.
If help is needed	Ask your chosen support person or pool staff.
Phones	No photos or videos in the changing area.

Sample answers below. Accept equivalent wording and supported communication.

1. A cubicle door is closed. What should you do first?

Knock and wait for a reply.

2. What can you do for privacy while changing?

Close the cubicle door.

3. Who could you ask if you need help?

Your chosen support person or pool staff.

4. Can someone take photos in this changing area?

No; the notice says no photos or videos.
